LOK SABHA

The following Bills were introduced in Lok Sabha on the 12th October, 1989:—

BILL NO. 67 OF 1989

A Bill further to amend the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Act, 1982

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Fortieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Amendment Act, 1989.

Short title.

2. In section 3 of the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Act, 1982, in the proviso, in clause (a).—

Amendment of Act 43 of 1982.

(a) in sub-clause (ii), for the word “and”, occurring at the end, the word “or” shall be substituted and shall be deemed to have been substituted with effect from the 1st day of June, 1988;

(b) sub-clause (iii) shall be omitted and shall be deemed to have been omitted with effect from the 1st day of June, 1988.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 3 of the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Act, 1982 (43 of 1982) provides that there shall be paid to every Governor emoluments at the rate of Rs. 11,000/- per mensem. Clause (a) of the proviso to that section, however, provides that if a Governor, at the time of his appointment is in receipt of a pension (other than disability or wound pension) in respect of any previous service under the Government of India or any of its predecessor Governments or under the Government of a State or any of its predecessor Governments, his emoluments shall be reduced,—

(i) by the amount of that pension; and

(ii) if he has, before such appointment, received in lieu of a portion of the pension due to him in respect of such previous service the commuted value thereof, by the amount of that portion of the pension; and

(iii) if he has, before such appointment, received a retirement gratuity in respect of such previous service, by the pension equivalent of that gratuity.

2. The Government of India in the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions have issued orders to the effect that the pension equivalent of gratuity may not be deducted while fixing the pay of re-employed pensioners. The Ministry of Finance have also issued orders that pension equivalent of gratuity will not be taken into account while fixing the initial pay of retired Judges of the High Courts and Supreme Court appointed to on Committees/Commissions. These orders have been made effective from the 1st June, 1988.

3. The Bill seeks to amend the said Act to allow the benefit of not deducting pension equivalent of gratuity from the emoluments payable to Governors. According to the amendments proposed in the Bill, Governors who had received retirement gratuity in respect of previous service would be benefited.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.

(a) the Scheduled Tribe, namely, "Mikir" shall be known as "Karbi";

(b) for the word "Mikir", the word "Karbi" shall be substituted.

Removal of doubts.

3. For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that every certificate issued to a member belonging to any Scheduled Caste or, as the case may be, Scheduled Tribe immediately before the commencement of this Act under any of the Orders referred to in section 2 shall be deemed to have been issued under such Order as amended by this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Some entries in the lists of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes notified in various Presidential orders have been the subject of criticism on the ground that the names of certain Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe communities or sub-sects thereof included in these lists sound derogatory because of their disrespectful or undignified connotations. There has been considerable resentment amongst the concerned communities or sub-sects thereof. The Joint Committee on the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Orders) Amendment Bill, 1967 had also recommended the change in the names which sound derogatory. In deference to these sentiments, it is proposed to change their names with more acceptable ones.

2. The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.
